

The World in 10 People

If we were to use 10 people to represent the world's population, the state of Christianity would look something like this:

Jesus? – He is my Lord and Savior.

ONE person (10%) would be a true follower of Jesus.

Jesus? – He is a nice teacher, but I want to do my own thing.

TWO people (20%) might call themselves Christians, but their obedience to Jesus is doubtful.

Jesus? – No thank you.

FOUR people (40%) have some access to the gospel, but they have not yet responded.

Jesus? – Who is that?
The last THREE people (30%) have virtually no access to the gospel.
